SAGA 10 OF 10 — THE WORSHIP OF HEAVEN

All Scripture is from the King James Version. The words of Jesus are printed in red.

This book holds one saga by itself, with the same words shared on its morning.

THE KEY VERSE

"Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created." — REVELATION 4:11

THE SAGA — THE WORSHIP OF HEAVEN (REVELATION 4-5)

The Bible's last book opens a door in heaven, and what John sees there is worship without end. Around the throne, the four living creatures "rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come." The twenty-four elders fall down, cast their crowns before the throne, and say:

> "Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created." — REVELATION 4:11

Then the Lamb appears — Jesus, slain and standing — and all of heaven sings: thousands upon thousands of angels, and every creature in heaven and on earth, singing:

> "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing." — REVELATION 5:12

This is where the woman at the well was being pointed. This is where Hannah's song, Abraham's obedience, David's dancing, and the midnight singing of Paul and Silas were all headed. Worship in spirit and in truth is heaven's language, learned on earth. When you worship the Father the way Jesus taught, your voice is joining a choir that will never stop.

JESUS IN THIS SAGA

Do not miss who stands at the center of heaven's worship: the Lamb. Every song in Revelation 5 is aimed at Jesus. And before the cross, He prayed that we would be there with Him to see His glory:

> "Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world." — JOHN 17:24

THE HOLY SPIRIT IN THIS SAGA

The last call to worship in the Bible joins the Holy Spirit to the invitation. The same Spirit who dwells in you today is the One calling the whole world to come:

> "And the Spirit and the bride say, Come." — REVELATION 22:17

CARRY THIS WITH YOU TODAY

JOURNAL

Read John 4:23-24 one final time. Write what you believe Jesus is teaching you about worship.

ABOUT THIS SAGA

A door opens in heaven, and the worship never stops. The elders cast their crowns before the throne, the angels sing by the thousands, and at the center of it all stands the Lamb who was slain. This is where every saga was headed.

This is the tenth saga. It is worship in heaven: the song your voice joins every time you worship the Father in spirit and in truth.

This book is Saga 10 of 10 from "Worshiping the Father in Spirit and in Truth." Each saga also has its own book, and all ten sagas stand together in the full book.

"Worthy is the Lamb that was slain."

— REVELATION 5:12 (KJV)
